

KM.6056

Designed with soft lines, this sectional sofa is versatile in its applications of functions. The innovative "ultra-high leg" motion system gives the sofa a clean look and allows the vacuum machine to enter underneath the sofa without leaving any dust. With extended footrest, the relaxation system works smoothly and the independent ratched headrest contributes to the exceptional comfort. The delicate metal legs with sweeping curves add a finishing modern touch to this sofa. A variety of color options are available, making it easily customizable to your desired space.
